

March 2, 2007

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sheriff Provenzano Sworn-In As First Vice President of Sheriffs' Association

United States Attorney Christopher Christie recently presided at the installation ceremony for new officers of the Sheriffs' Association of New Jersey.

During the ceremony, U.S. Attorney Christie administered the First Vice President oath of office to Somerset County Sheriff Frank J. Provenzano.

Other 2007-2008 officers of the Association include Morris County Sheriff Edward Rochfor, president; Mercer County Sheriff Kevin Larkin, second vice president; Sussex County Sheriff Robert Untig, secretary; and Hudson County Sheriff Joseph Cassidy, treasurer.

Addressing members of the Association, U. S. Attorney Christie acknowledged the continued commitment of all 21 Sheriff's Offices and their cooperation in law enforcement throughout New Jersey.

Founded in 1929, the Sheriffs' Association of New Jersey is one of the oldest law enforcement organizations in the state. The Association supports Sheriff's Offices and the safety, security and protection of New Jersey citizens.

For more information, contact Sheriff Frank J. Provenzano at (908) 231-7140.

Somerset County Sheriff Frank J. Provenzano is sworn in by U.S. Attorney Christopher Christie as First Vice President of the Sheriffs' Association of New Jersey. Holding the bible for Sheriff Provenzano is his wife, Lou Ann Provenzano.

###